Partners in Volunteerism

In an effort to mobilize volunteers, the Volunteer Center of Cedar Valley is pleased to offer services to our partners in volunteerism.

If your particular needs fall outside the scope of what is shown here, please let us know. We would be delighted to create a program for your business.

We will provide:

- Up-to-date information on available opportunities in the community weekly
 - Opportunity for the VCCV to attend a staff meeting and share information regarding volunteerism
 - An information table/bulletin board in lobby or cafeteria for employees to find volunteer opportunities
 - Arrangement of a Volunteer Day for employees
 - A place for your business logo on our website and newsletter

We ask you provide:

- A main contact for your business
- An easily accessible location for your employees to view available opportunities
 - A place on your website for our logo and link to our website

Benefits of Volunteering for the Business and the Employee

Benefits to Business:

- Increase community awareness of mission of business
- Shows community investment
- Provides a positive atmosphere for employees
- Increases employee retention
- Increases employee productivity

Benefits to Employees:

- Teambuilding activities
- Raise morale
- Increase productivity
- Improve values and self-esteem
